

What?

(What are they going to do?)

Well, they're going to dedicate a ship.

(Oh, are they?)

Yeah, I told them I think it's a good thing, you know?

(Yeah.)

Tribe should go, you know, select committee to go.

(Yeah, yeah.)

It don't matter. We don't have any more old people now, you know.

(Yeah.)

Just very few, you know. Just the old ones, but they don't mingle among the tribe.

(Yeah.)

And I told them--we haven't had a meeting, but that's what they're going to do. They're going to have something to eat. Then, they're going to talk about it, you know, about going over there.

(Yeah.)

I guess we got a new ship built, you know, at Boston, ship yard.

(Yeah.)

They want to dedicate it. I don't know I hear, but it's from the United States Navy.

(Yeah.)

They--they want the Wichita Indians to--to be there on that dedication of that ship.

(What's--what's--what's the name of that ship?)

It's a new one.

(You know what---)
