

That's about all in that game, you know.

(Yeah.)

It's just a game, you know. Oh, it's pretty hard do that.

(Yeah.)

Then, you--then, you run hard.

(Yeah.)

Took a man, you know, long to give out.

(Yeah.)

It makes me--few runs, you know, maybe, short ways, you know.

(How--how many people on each side of that?)

Why, it ain't no--just so it's kind of divided up, you know.

(Yeah, I see, yeah.)

Kind of divide it up, you know. Maybe, got some older man over here and young ones just like that, you know. They got that way.

(Yeah.)

Yeah, they line up and start a game, you know! They get in the middle, you know. They throw that ball up---

(Mmm-hmmm.)

---just like that. After you throw it up, well, the game's on.

(Yeah. Is that ball hard or is it soft?)

It's a--it's soft, but it hurts when it hits you, you know.

(Yeah.)

It's soft, you know. It's not too hard.

(Yeah.)

It's soft. Get hit, you know, it don't hurt you, but--only time I got hurt in there, I got hit with a stick. (laughter) you know, a man guarding the place where the ball was going. And that guy hit me back this way, you know.
