

And I stayed in bed nine days.

(Nine days?)

And for a whole month I didn't do none of the hard work.

(Did you nurse your baby?)

Yes.

(Did you have any trouble nursing?)

No. Not a bit.

(While you were pregnant did you go ahead and have regular intercourse with your husband?)

Sometimes.

(Was he happy to have a baby?)

Yes.

(Did you do anything different with the rest of your children?)

Nothing. Not that I...

(Other than the first?)

No.

(How far apart were they?)

Let's see--two years apart 'till; let's see--between Jim and Frank it was three years. Two years apart and then three.

(Did you practice any form of birth control at all?)

I didn't know what birth control was then and I still don't know yet. I don't need to know it now.

FATHER WAS A CIRCUIT PREACHER

(Did you ever go out after you were married to visit shows or fairs or anything?)

No. I went to church. I went to church.

(And your father was a Methodist preacher?)

And my husband was a Baptist.
