

No, I don't.

(He just suddenly decided?)

Well, one this, we were Presbyterians before we become Methodists. And all the Presbyterian preachers died out and we couldn't get no more Indian Presbyterian preachers, so the church went into the Methodist church or something, a Methodist organization. I think it was '23 when they went in the Methodist church. And that's when he, I imagine, became a preacher.

(He just decided to become one?)

I imagine he did.

(Did he ((?)) before then?)

Uh-huh.

(Did you have a big house when you were little? Was his house big?)

Uh-huh. Still there. Five-room house.

(Oh boy.)

Yeah. Five-room house still there, I think. I admit I haven't been there in over a year. I don't know what shape it is now.

(Did your husband have any trouble with the white people at all?)

Huh-uh. Oh yeah.

(Did they ever fight or did they just ignore each other?)

No they didn't fight.

EARS PIERCED - EARRINGS

(How long have you had your ears pierced.)

Oh, since I was just a kid. I remember...one day - I guess I was about five or six years old.

(And they just pierced them for you?)

Uh-huh.

(Was that more or less the custom to always pierce the girls' ears?)
