

T-79

LOUISE SADDLEBLANKET, KIOWA-APACHE

INTERVIEWED BY: WILLIAM BITTLE

INTERVIEW DATE: JULY 11, 1967

TRANSCRIBED BY: PAM CHIBITTY

GENERAL SUBJECT: OLD KIOWA-APACHE SOCIETIES; MEDICINE BUNDLES

TOPICS DISCUSSED:

RABBIT SOCIETY DANCE

HORSE SOCIETY

TRIBAL MEDICINE BUNDLES

DESECRATION OF MEDICINE BUNDLE BY SOLDIERS

ORIGIN OF MEDICINE BUNDLES: DEVIL'S LAKE

LOUISE'S INDIAN NAME

INDIAN TRADERS: ANNUITY PAYMENTS: RATIONS

WINTER CAMPS AT ANADARKO

GAMBLING AND GAMES DURING WINTER CAMP

LIFE HISTORY: SCHOOLING

LIFE HISTORY: MARRIAGE AND CHILDREN

STORY OF DEATH OF A DAUGHTER

BACKGROUND OF INFORMANT:

Louise Saddleblanket is nearly full-blooded Apache, 74 years old, with a maximum schooling of about six years (although she remained for several years in the same grade). She has been married at least three times and has born innumerable children, although only three have survived to the present time. She is highly knowledgeable about the old days and is an articulate informant.