

my brother say that all the motels and hotels got their Delaware name on it (here informant refers to Sweden where there is a museum and places named for the Delawares.)

(Do the Delawares in Oklahoma ever visit those in Dewey?)

Oh, we used to visit one another. Like now we got our claim and they come in on it. I don't know where was that treaty made up there when they was first together. That's how come they have to come in on it.-- them Dewey Delawares. Not these. And ah--the other people they trying to come in (referring to Canadian Delawares.) Named Monsouth. Just one family. They wasn't adopted with the Delawares but they just go along with 'em. But now they say they want to get in on our claim.

(Are they Delawares?)

No, they say--some other tribe. What is it they call it?

(Daughter: those must be Delawares from Canada.)

Yeah, trying to come in our claim.

(What faith are you Mrs. Snake?)

Caddo. That's Caddo Baptist. That's just the name of a church. That's where we got baptized. All my daughters got baptized. Except one bunch there. They belong to Catholic.

(Is your mother a Baptist too?)

Yeah.

(How did that church get the name Caddo?)

I don't know why. They should just say Indian church.

(Do both tribes go there?)

No. Most of us go over there (referring to Delawares) Lot of Caddos but they don't go there. Lot of Indians they don't go around them white churches. They believe their own churches.

(Do you have an Indian minister?)

We used to have but we don't now. We have white preacher.

(Could you tell me another story in Delaware?)
