

(Were you awake when the second baby came?)

Uh huh, it didn't take too long.

(Were you on your back or side?)

My back, the pains come up about one o'clock.

(Were you afraid the first time?)

Oh, kinda.

(Did it hurt a lot?)

Oh, yes.

(Did you nurse the baby?)

Uh huh. I nursed all my babies except this one here.

(question not clear)

I have that's with Vern, that's my oldest boy. That's my oldest girl. I had her in 1936. I got all girls, no boys.

(Not even your three that died. Those were girls, too?)

Oh, it didn't make me any difference. I just want a baby.

(question not clear)

Oh, I don't think she's scared.

(Do they have any reason against a boy or a girl?)

I don't think so. Well, I kinda heard-- I use to hear them say that the boys are way up in here and the girls come in low. But I don't know.

I've heard some say that they are up and some say that they're down and some say that they're turned--

Yeah--

I can't tell for sure either. Had you ever seen a baby born before?)
