

one that can get revenge of people is God Almighty. When I quit that church the whole congregation liked me. I'm not bragging, but I'm not gonna be a faithful worker any more. In their church they had to use a residence for a church. Wondering why don't they build a church of their own? So the Mission Board came down and this is what they told. They didn't have any money to build a new church. Well, I got up and asked them what became of all the money. The Proceeds that came out of the land sale. They sold about ten acres that belonged to the Indians. I asked them what all become of the money. So the Mission Board president he gets up and says, "Well, I'm gonna go back up and check on it. I'll be back the following Sunday." He came back the following Sunday; and he came and looked for me, and he says, "How you know?" "I told you how I know. I was keeping tab of everything. I keep books. I had to be the one to take of everything." The man from the Mission Board finally broke down and says, "Well, you people's got enough money to have a new church." There's lot of things I've helped my people get, but they don't appreciate it. So I just said to myself I just better slow down. Let someone else do it all.

(What kind of church did they build?)

Mennonite. The Arrapahoe people didn't have no place to bury themselves. So there was so many acres around there for the church, they leased that land out to a farmer so they can take care of their church. And white people helped donate then but now today there's nobody helps donate. Cause they been lied to, cheated, now how can the Indian say he believe what the white man say? Even our preachers today looks down their nose at them. Indians. He's a preacher, still in Canton. I asked him
