

know, and he would give them ~~an horse~~ or something you know but he's got to give it to the parents of the girl and these girls that get married to them, they're scared of the man you know to sleep with him or anything like that they just, they would try to get away from them, but their parents gets after them and tell them to, "Go to your husband. Go sleep with your husband." And they push them out, you know and tell them to go to their husband. "you're married now, you go and live with your husband." And they always give their childrens, these young girls away to elder man, even if they don't like it or not, they just tell them, "Go ahead, you're married now to that man." Cause they don't like for them to have childrens without husband. That's why they do that to them.

(Could the girls ever leave?)

I guess so, but if they run away from this elder man, their parents would look for them and bring them back and tell them to stay with that man. And then finally they'd get used to it. get used to the old man and then they'd stay with him.

DEEDS EXPECTED OF YOUNG MEN:

(How did the young men get wives?)

Well, there's a lot of young mans. They're not married. They want them to go to war and they want them to be a hero and go and kill people and bring back horses and things like that. They'd rather let them stay like that. So if they're married, they can't go. They have childrens back here. And there was a lot of young mens like that. They weren't married. They didn't get married on account of their parents didn't want them to get married, because they want them to go off and kill