

No. None of mine went. They don't go to that big school. They don't send them off till they get way up in highschool. Till they graduate, like, from these little schools.

(Did your brothers go to school?)

No, they didn't go to school. But my oldest brother he went to Carlisle and my oldest sister went to Carlisle.

(How many years did they go there?)

Oh, I don't know. I just don't know.

(Did he learn some kind of job there?)

No. All they learned is to talk English. That's all.

WORKING IN OKLAHOMA CITY

(Well, were you ever--you know, you were telling me the other day when you went to school you worked in the laundry--)

Yeah, I learned how to work in the laundry, myself, I know.

(--now did you ever do this type of work?)

Yeah, I worked in Oklahoma City in a laundry.

(How long?)

Oh, I worked there about 6 years. Somewhere in there.

(Did you live over there?)

Yeah, we lived over there. And I don't even remember what year was it we moved over there? Oklahoma City, what year was it we lived over there? Sonny was six years old ain't it?

(Willie: It was about 24--25, years ago.)

Yeah, and he worked in a flour mill.

(What did he do?)

Sewed up the sacks of flour, feed.

(Where did you live over there?)

We lived down on Walnut. In town there, we rented an apartment house. We
