

No, we used to see a lot of things. You know, kids right today, see things. People say, oh - - that's your imagination or - - My son saw the wheel fall off of an airplane. He was on the way to school, and he told the teacher, and shw wouldn't listen to him. Well, the plane, the people flying the plane, didn't know the wheel fell off till they started to land, come in, and somebody radioed him. See, had he know it, he might 've done something about it. But he was fixin' to land, see and he didn't know the wheel come off. But the kids see lots of things. One time, in Texas, we were allowed to go to the show. Friday, and we were supposes to get back before dark. Well, you know kids. Well, we didn't do it, until it was real late. It wasn't dark, but it was real late. And we was gonna come around the road, no we were gonna come up over the trail way. We got half way up the side of the hill, and we heard come talking, and the next thing we saw them. They were gamblin' you know, so we walked back down the hill, and started up the road. And we got a little ways up this road, and there we saw sticking out of the weeds at the sside of the road was a leg of a man. Well, we stopped at the first house. Well, 'bout that time we walked on and we put near got to the top of this hill. And by the time we got up, here come this coupe just passed us, you know a car, and there was two boys in it. And we got a pretty good look at 'em, you know, goin' up this hill. And you know cars didn't go so fast then. And so, we stopped at this first house we came to, and we told this man. And you know, he was a little jubberish about it. We were just kids. And So, - but 'he did agree to go back down there, but he wouldn't let us go. And sure nuff it was a man. And it turned out t ese two boys in this coupe, had gotten a ride with this man, and had killed him and pitched him out there. And they went back down the hill for some reason or 'nother and had come back up. I don't know why. But anyway, they caught 'em, 'bout two or three days later. But