

it like that--keep turning it 'round?" she said. I said, "It might drop," I said. She said, "No, it won't!" she said. "Oh, go ahead, then!" I said. "I don't care!" We warm it and that thing just get greasy. And then we go ahead and let it cool off. When it cools off, well, we take all that hackberries off from that stick. We always throw that stick away. We go ahead and eat it.
