

Mr. O.: 18626.

Mr. T.: Where do you live now Mr. O. Field?

Mr. O.: Out here near Kansas, Oklahoma.

Mr. T.: Is that on your property?

Mr. O.: Yes sir.

Mr. T.: Were you born there or near there?

Mr. O.: No, I was born here on (Badas?) Creek.

Mr. T.: When did you begin to live on the property you live on now?

Mr. O.: I imagine ever since I was a year old.

Mr. T.: Did your mother live on that property?

Mr. O.: Yeah.

Mr. T.: Did her parents live on that property?

Mr. O.: Yes sir.

Mr. T.: Is there someone else that lives on that property now other than yourself? And your children?

Mr. O.: My sister-in-law lives there.

Mr. T.: How many children do you have?

Mr. O.: I have 5.

Mr. T.: 5 that live with you?

Mr. O.: 4 now, one married.

Mr. T.: And their ages are what? Of those 4 who live with you?

Mr. O.: One is 16, I think, to 10.

Mr. T.: Their all in school?

Mr. O.: Yes.

Mr. T.: Are you married now Mr. O. Field?

Mr. O.: No sir.

Mr. T.: Do you take care of those children?

Mr. O.: Yes sir.

Mr. T.: Have you ever worked this property? Farmed it?

Mr. O.: Yes sir, I farmed it a little.
