

Mr. T.: Before he died were you (interrupted).

Mrs. P.: He had 160 acres.

Mr. T.: Alright.. Before he died, were you or he receiving Welfare?

Mrs. P.: After he died she started getting assistance.

Mr. T.: Was he receiving any before he died?

Mrs. P.: No.

Mr. T.: And are you receiving any now?

Mrs. P.: No, she doesn't now.

Mr. T.: When was the last Welfare you received?

Mrs. P.: February 1st.

Mr. T.: Of this year?

Mrs. P.: This year.

Mr. T.: How much were you receiving before you were cut off?

Mrs. P.: $50.

Mr. T.: And why were you cut off?

Mrs. P.: She said that she didn't know, but that a lady come to her house and told her she was getting cut off unless she sold her land.

Mr. T.: Does she know who that lady was?

Mrs. P.: She said she didn't know who it was, but if she saw the lady she could tell who it was. She didn't know the name.

Mr. T.: Well, has anyone from the Bureau talked to...

Mrs. P.: She said the lady that was in the office downstairs, there's no one from the Bureau been to see her.

Mr. T.: The lady who is in the office downstairs is the lady who came to see you?

Mrs. P.: She said she was downstairs in one of the offices.

Mr. T.: Was it in the Welfare Office downstairs? In the basement?

Mrs. P.: Yes.

Mr. T.: Is the lady who told her that she had too much land and would be cut off the Welfare Office that right?

Mrs. P.: Yes.

Mr. T.: And the reason again, was she had too much land, is that right?
