

Mr. T.: Do you have a house on the 160 acres?

Mrs. P.: Yes, there is a house on there.

Mr. T.: How old is that house?

Mrs. P.: She said she didn't know.

Mr. T.: Is it older than you are? Is it an old house or young house?

Mrs. P.: She said it was real old.

Mr. T.: What kind of condition is it in?

Mrs. P.: Real old.

Mr. T.: Can you get her to describe the condition?

Mrs. P.: She said it was built by her husband.

Mr. T.: How many rooms does it have?

Mrs. P.: Two.

Mr. T.: Does it have running water?

Mrs. P.: No.

Mr. T.: Does it have electricity?

Mrs. P.: She's not for sure but the people that are living in it said they would have put in, but she doesn't know if they did or not.

Mr. T.: There are people living in it now?

Mrs. P.: Yes.

Mr. T.: How many people live in it?

Mrs. P.: She thinks there's 6.

Mr. T.: That's all I have to say.

Senator: Before we adjourn, I would like to read into the record Mr. Trapp's letter to the hearing on behalf of Mr. O'Fields. It is on the Stationary of Stuart M. Attorney at Law, Tahlequah, Oklahoma, June 3, 1969.
