

I just couldn't hardly walk. Finally I just give up and I went to eating.

(Did you weigh 109 pounds when he wanted you to lose weight?)

No, I just weighed a 111 pounds and after that they wanted me to lose weight. And I just went to 109 pounds. That's when I was so weak I just couldn't hardly go.

(Did they find that diabetes while you where there at the State Hospital?)

Yeah--no I didn't stay at the State Hospital. You know, before they were transfered to state I was over here at this hospital 1960. But after I got that's when they changed. Sent them up there to state. I got a cousin up there now. He's been in there over a year. You know Fawson? He's been there over a year. When I went down to see him, he thought he was going to get out, but the last time Dan went over there to see him he didn't know when he was going to get out.

(Pop: He said he write to his folks but none of them write back.)

Yeah, that's what Dan was telling me. Jacob tease him and said I guess he tried another woman. (--) Said Fawson furnished his wives stamps and mail them and everything. But she never would write to him. I think that's what makes him worry too. If I ever have a chance I'd like to go up there and see him.

(What did--did they keep you on a diet for diabetes?)

Yeah.

(Did you get shots?)

No.

(They didn't give you any shots?)

No, not suppose to go--July 11, I don't know whether I go or not.

You know, they didn't even examine me and give me medicine. I don't
