

think they--you don't know what your 'takin' that medicine for. I'll have to chew a rag with Dr. Diddle, I've heard he's gone.

(Who was the surgeon?)

Dr. Green.

(I've met him.)

(--unintelligible)

They said Dr. Diddleworth was gone. That was my doctor. You about to go asleep? (Emma to Pop)

(pop: -- sleep.)

(How about, he is too isn't he?)

Nap time?

(How about your mother and dad, what can you remember about them?)

The old home place over there? Was that--where was their allotment, where did they live?)

They didn't have an allotment. My daddy and mother didn't.

(They didn't?)

They was not enrolled. On the roll. See my --on daddy's side my people -- and my mother use to live here. Her name was Anerson Rason Anderson was our grandpa.

(Are any of them still down around Broken Bow now?)

Some of the Aaron's live there. My uncle Johnny when he passed away in 1949 I had a sister she passed away in 1954, and I had a brother he passed away two years ago. Just me now.

(Just you. Do you have children?)

No.

(Just you?)

Yeah, since I heard Web Thompson I remember Web. He's old isn't he?
