

of them that sing yet. But it's not like it was. Then one day, they say come quartet come from Add~~and~~ and they sing and when they get through they go through the crowd with a arm full of song books through the crowd, they all got a book, and people just go and come and he didn't hardly get anything. We got a lot of speakers, you can't get close to it anymore. --on that account you can't hear it. People just running back and forth. Lot of people go there just to visit and talk, you know, they sing all night now. (POP)

I went to that -- church, they had singing and I went up there one time. They sure got a fine church up there.
