

after he got rich, among the-- Well, there's still some of his progeny around here right now spending his money, you know, this Chalepah and this one that killed the Indian girl out west of town. Tusegie?

Mr. Phillip Tusegie.

Mr. K: Tuesga, Tuesga, yeah. he still gets drunk around Anadarko. Yeah, he lives in Anadarko, I think.

Mr. Yeah.

Mr.K: he's married to Velma Peewoe

Mr.: Yeah, but he was supposed to get a life sentence and he got out in a few years, you know.

Mr.K: Oh, yeah he killed that, killed that--

Mr.: he was Big Ben's grandson wasn't he?

Mr.K: (unclear)

Mr.: Yeah, Jim Kilsfurth was here yesterday.

Mr.K: yeah.

Mr.: Well, I might give you some old Indian names. One was named Jerold, Blackbear. One was Homer Saddleblanket. One was Big Whip. One was name Big Jim. One was name Nobel Star. John' Loco. And really loco meant crazy. How he got that name I don't know, but loco is cary in what language? Kiowa?

(With the Apaches.)

Mr.K: Apaches--Ft. Sill Apaches.

Mr: Yeah.,

Mr.K: He's born and raised (unclear)

Mr.: Sam Houzer he was --

Mr. K? Yeah.

Mr. Well let's see--
