

Yeah, I think so. Yeah, that's what they all say. If you didn't I won't know what you'd done, just had to get somebody to stay with you. And I don't know anybody stay, it's getting pretty hard to stay with old people. now.

(But you get to stay at home?)

Yeah, that's better. Web Thompson. I believe--I think he was there when I was. There was a boy named Web Thompson there, unless it was somebody else.

(Well, there's just one and that's him?)

I guess he did. He's different. Atoka.

(He was at Atoka.)

Well, I guess he's the one.

(Pop: You remember ole Jess Monroe?)

Yeah, but I bet you he's different too. I know him. He's getting old now.

(Pop: Well do you--Rachel was he superintendent?)

Yeah. E.H. Rachel.

(E.H. Rachel was superintendent. You remember any of the teachers?)

(Laughs) I forgot.'

(Did you like it there? Did you--)

Yeah, I like it there.

(Did you get to wear--did you have your own clothes or did you wear uniforms?)

No, we had to wear our own clothes. That they had furnished there for us.

(They furnished them there for you?)

But we had to put our clothes away from home, and when we ready to