

I don't know. There's a big rain coming. It was thunder shower. Sound just like that, it was thundering. When he heard that thunder, it shake the whole ground..shake the whole earth. Fellow, he friend to him, he talk to him, he say, "Yaaah". He thunder another one, well he talk to him, said, "Yeah, I know now." He called them old peoples in the tipi he old then, "Peoples, that thunder, you all heard that thunderawhile ago, well he says that tunder he say he wants two persons. But are we going to do?" Well, that man he told them peoples, "We do this way," he said. He told them peopl s, "He's my good friend. We change it to other way." Give him your fastest horses we got." Had pretty good horses that time. The fastest in the bunch, we give it to him. Let him take it. All the old peoples sitting around said, "O.K. Let them take it. It save two persons." Well, here he come. Big rain. (claps his hands) Down he thundered. He shot them two fast horses the got in that bunch camping. And when everything clearer, they find the two horses shot by thunder. That's a true story.

ABOUT VISION QUEST:

(How did somebody get to be friends with, like your grandfather was friend with the snake?)

I'll tell you what, when they get sick, pretty sick, know they going to die, well, they go out on a big hill somewhere. Ain't nobody there, so they lay on top of these hills somewhere. Four days without eat, without drink. If they make it...They get hungry they get thinsty and oh, those bugs and snakes, they know. Now, the last night, fourth night, they come to him and they talk to him like we do now. Now that time, way back there, you know, they..everything understand. Well, might be snake or something else come out there and he ask, "Son what you laying over here for?" They had to answer, what is the matter with them or what do you want. If he sick, why
