

today week?" Mamma said " Yeah, I guess so, I have to, 'cause she can't cook, too little." Well he give a job. He give work. See everybody you know. They come about a week and they make a rail and when they done, they come and said " When you want some more work?" Next week. They done load up. Make new rail fence all around the house.

(The neighbors came in and did that work?)

Yeah. Yeah.

HER PHILOSOPHY OF LOVE AND PEOPLE

(They don't do that anymore, do they?) (Things have changed.)

Yeah. Aint got no neighbors now. It's all gone. All my neighbors gone.

When Indians been gone neighbors, white people come along for my neighbors.

But that's all. All gone too. They move out. I'm by self. I aint got no uncle, I aint got no grandma, no daughter, no son, and no -

(You've raised lots of children, haven't you?)

Yeah. That's all.

(See - That grandson that you raised - your sister's boy. He went to school over here at Sequoyah?)

Unhunh.

(What'd he do after he left there?) (He and his wife went to school over here at Sequoyah school?)

Unhunh. He married up there when he graduated you know. He was 21 years old when he graduate. And when he married, he got wife, you know that teacher come from up there - training school teacher and that's what they find my boy you know - get together and they marry. They live out there long time. I don't know - he been work about three years, I guess.

(Work for the Post Office in North Carolina?)
