

And you know somethin', Charlie Wickett cut that off. Yeah.

(After you'd planted it?)

Yeah. I planted it. And still had a sprout. That's still big now, aint it? Yeah, I forgot what they name. I was - I guess I was six years old, I guess. I plant it.

WILD TURKEYS AND WOLVES

(They used to have turkey and everything in here. You don't have 'em anymore, do you?)

No. Hunnuh.

(When you were a little girl, lots of turkeys?)

Yeah. Gobblers. Turkey and wolf.

(Wolves?)

Yeah. Used to be a lot of 'em. You know they chasin' my hogs, one time. I had hogs got a bed out there somewhere. No - right there. There used to be lot woods in there. They sleep right there and had little ones. Wolf come in steal my pig. Ohoooooh I just holler and chase 'em with dog. I stand on porch and dog chase 'em in there and wolf chasin' dog and wolf runnin'. That's way they done. They just goin' and goin' -

(Back and forth, both of 'em. Kinda like a Cherokee dance?)

Yeah. Just like it. They steal my little pigs.

(This house, you told me awhile ago was built in 188 -).

In 1894. Unhunnh. And the chimney was built in 1895. I was born 1896.

(The house has stood up pretty well hasn't it?)

Unhunnh. Yeah.

MORE ABOUT FIDDLE DANCING

(You were telling me about this dancing, awhile ago. I didn't
