

to the full growth and heighth. Then, at a given time, it will take over. The new generation, the new horn of plenty that was growing will take over. And when it does, our people, the Cherokees, will be divided in more than a hundred different ways. But they'll find ways and means to come together and work. When they do this, they will be a 40 year period in which they will prosper and live good. But after this 40 year period is over, then God's hand will take a ruling again. And this only God knows then what can happen after that.

(End of interview.)

(The last half of side B is blank.)