

, with other blankets given away. That blanket was in our family when my uncle and they died. They turned it over to me. And about 40 years ago I gave it to Bishop Smith of Oklahoma City and he's got it. I think I've got a picture of that.

(Gee, I'd like to see it sometime.)

It's in one of those albums I got.

End of Tape