

SAINDAY CHEATS WHITE MAN

(Tell me about that.)

He met a white man. That white man says, "What is your name?" My name is Sainday. Sainday. Big chief. Big chief." And that white man says, "Oh, I'm just walking around. I like to see Sainday. Are you the one that cheat the people?" "Yeah, I am. I'm cheating the people. Nobody can't cheat me." And that white man said, "Let's see you cheat me. You're not going cheat me." Now, Sainday said, "All right. I will try. I'll do my best to cheat you. He ride a donkey. White man had a donkey. It's got saddle on it. He got off. And white man say, "You cheat me right now." And Sainday said, "Oh my, I can't cheat you right now. My medicine is way--you see that mountain over there? There where I live by the mountain. I left my medicine there. I don't know where I get it." "Go get it then. I stay right here waiting for you. And you go and get it." "Oh, I just come long ways. I can't go back. If you'll lend me your donkey I'll go and get it and come right back." "All right, I'll do that!" My, he got in! "All right, I'll do that!" He ride: (clicks tongue) "Get up! Get up!" He was just pulling back and that donkey was--oh, that donkey won't go. "You better loan me your coat. Then he'll know it was--" He give him his coat. "Hey, get up! Get up!" That donkey go but he just pull him back. "Oh, you better loan me your pants and shoes." "All right." He give them to him. Third time, "Oh, he won't go! Loan me your hat and a whip. Then I'll be all right. Gloves." "All right. Go fast and come right back!" Oh, he put his hat on. There he goes. Just as fast as he could. He say, "Hey, I already cheat you. I ain't going to let you have your stuff!" He run behind. "Ah, Sainday! Bring my mule back! Please!" "I'm not going give it to you!" He went behind the mountain and
