RECENT CLAIM SETTLENENT, CONTROVERSY OVER MANNER OF EAYMENI'S:
-Oklahoma claim of the Medicine Lodge feace Treaty-..... and we won that in 162 165. Fifteen million. No obligations, no offsets, no counter clains--nothing. And it was in the paper yesterday where we're going 'to get that, too. 'Did you see that? In the Oklahoman? There was no necessity of it, but this comrittee, all young high school smartiet--got in our comnittee and they couldn't do nothing. They had no background. No experience. And they had a bill--Corigress to pay us our money when .we'd already won it. When it was already in our name in the Treasury of the United States. ill unnecessary. And there's five or six- Iy daughter's one of 'em that died, that won't get any of that. And after that I beer mad at them. I'm going to give 'em a hard, good talking this coming Thursday nite over here. we're gonna gather. Talk about this campaign that's coming on for election. And there wh't be any of 'em that retain their office.
(What election is that?).
It's the committee election. The members of the Business Committee, every two years. This is the year we elect. Election comes off November 14. They're having their prelininary campaign męetirg here Saturday night. . Nake sfeeches. Big dinner, and all that. Everybody's invited to it. Iake part, and express themselves. (When gid you say they won that claim?)

Well, in '58, we won that Wyoming claim. Ne call it the Wyoring claim-Areaty of 1851. Twenty-three and a half nillion. It involves Northern Cheyennes Montana, Northern Arapaho of Ayoming, and the Oklahoma Cheyennes and Arapahoes. All of us-four divi-sions-three divisions. Twenty-three and a half mililion. And by another Section (?) of that case, sane tribes; only by the Oklahoma division. They file a claim. And we won that: Nell, it was realiy-nthe opinion was really made after 162 , but the final decision of ihe cour was rendered in October, 1965. That gives us fifteen rillion clear, and it has built up interest of about half a milition on tof of that since. Since 162.
