

#1 Big Bow

(What story are you going to tell?)

About my grandpa, about Big Bow.

(Big Bow?)

Yeah. I want to tell about that (unintelligible) story.

(All right. Go Ahead.)

Able:: There at the war, way back someshere. They call Red Soldiers. They got all uniforms, all red ones. They call Red Soldiers. They call that soldiers. I thought they got fight- - big fight. Lots of times, they have to kill, you know. (Unintelligible phrase). And they got kill right there.

And some people, all them Kiowas, they say, well, we go back. It's kinda like - - water -- come little bit to water like that. Big rock. Little cave in there. Well, we gonna put you right there. You got arrows, saddle, everything. Saddle blanket. We better go. You gonna die anyhow. We gonna go home. And I could put the horse right there. Hobble up that horse cross the creek over there. Well, I don't know- - you might come out, they said. They all cried.

They cried and went back. Pretty soon somebody come that liked - - liked that song. (Unintelligible phrase.) Big red eagle, I guess. Red bird. Big red bird. Got those (unintelligible word) all over him. He talk. He say "Hey" I'll help you. You better get up. I gonna call you better(?) They going doctor you. And he said, oh, oh- - Went again, and come lots of - - buzzards. Black birds, about size of eagle. They come along - - almost fifty, I guess. They come to doctor him. They eat them worms. They eat that worms. They look at 'em. They eat that worm, lot of 'em. They eat 'em and eat it and eat it. And they doctor him. They put their fan up. Cause right there it's light. That water, said they come water down to oh, wash me. Well this here he talk. He said, Well, inside of water or something - - just like a green stalk. (Charlie: Moss.) Put him on like that. Put it on
