

is nigh, and you know that the coming of spring is near, you could see these trees budding out. That's the way you know the spring is near. You going to be surprised one of these days that you don't know whether the spring is coming. Going to change then. Everything's going to change." So, those things that he foretold was coming to pass today. He said, "Besides, you watch now," he told me, "Son, watch. There's coming a time that you young people going to throw your own parents in jail for no cause. Pretty soon they going to have - - the young peoples ain't going to listen to parents. You going to know that the Lord is coming, pretty soon. Better get ready." Those things, you know, he told me. Oh, it's wonderful the way he - - he speaks better English than I do.

(Did he ever go to school when he was young?)

He went to third grade or did he say that far as he went was kindergarten - - I think he said. And then he didn't go to school after that, after - - well, I don't know if he finished through a season, from the time he went to school to the next school term.

(Where was he born?)

He was born around Indianahoma.

(What made you decide to quit the church and join the peyote members?)

Well, I just - - see before he became a Christian preacher, we used to go to peyote meetings together, me and my dad, and mother. So, after, after I - - after I back slide, adn right after I back slide, I didn't go to no peyote meeting - - after my wife died, first wife died. So after I got with her, well, she's a peyote member, you know, my wife, Mary, and - - so we got started in going together, peyote ways. And that's how come that I went back. I know that - - I ain't going it's wrong but yet according to the way of teaching, the teaching of my father, well, it don't seem right to me, but anyway I still go. But yet I ain't going to say it's not good. But that's the thought that he put in my mind, see, that he give me, the
