

tribe and also the Kiowa. Saturday that was done. I asked Mr. Grissom I say could you call a meeting. I know we have difficulties every time we have a meeting somewhere even though we have had 6 or 7 hundred people there. They say no we can't recognize it cause we didn't call it and besides we don't know who you all represent. They give us all kinds of difficulties. So Sat. we try it and I was surprised Mr. Grissom said I call it. I be glad to call a meeting, where you all want it and when you all want it. What time you all want it, he put it back in our hands. Allen Soomti was there. He says we want it right away we got to move we got to act. So this coming Sat. containing this notice here, 2:00 at the conference room at the Anadarko Agency, the Apaches will meet. What for? This is important. That's why we urge those of you that here this evening do all you can to bring others to this meeting. All right this is our plan. We want create and appoint a constitutional committee of 5. Five Apaches to begin immediately plans to bring back to the tribe a constitution that be voted on. This constitution that will be presented to you later and formulate a business committee. Now that's kind a hitting the high points. I'll go a little further. All right, I tell you this much from my experience in tribal affairs that if we do not have a committee when our claim is settled, I can not guarantee you a per capita payment. I could almost be safe to say that you're not gonna have no voice in how this per capita payment be handled. It will be handled by per capita. I do know this, the secretary of Interior will have everything in his hands. It will be easy for him to tell Congress that the Kiowa, Comanches and Apaches are without a govern-
