T-182-1 (First of Three Interviews)

ED NIX, NON-INDIAN

INTERVIEWED BY: BILL SAVAGE INTERVIEW DATE: JUNE 11, 1967 TRANSCRIBED BY: LINDA BUTLER

GENERAL SUBJECT: BEEF SALES TO KIOWAS IN CARNEGIE, OKIAHOMA

AND VICINITY

TOPICS DISCUSSED:

PERSONAL HISTORY
SALES TO DISEASED CATTLE AND MEAT TO INDIANS
PROFIT FROM BEEF SALES
SEEING INDIANS EAT RAW LIVER
PROFIT FROM TRADING AS OPPOSED TO FARMING
CATTLE DISEASES
CHARACTER OF INDIANS

BACKGROUND OF INFORMANT:

Ed Nix was born in 1893 in Pottawatomi County, Indian Territory. They moved to the Chickasaw Nation in 1898 and to Chickasha, Oklahoma in 1899. He moved to Caddo County in 1902 and has lived near Carnegie since that time. Mr. Nix is a yeteran of World War I. He was superintendent of the Water Department in Carnegie for forth years and retired five years ago.

Note: The other interviews on this tape are: Abe Grad, Non-Indian

Mrs. E. F. Kełley, Non-Indian