

T-178

DAISEY HOKEAH, KIOWA

JACK HOKEAH, KIOWA

INTERVIEWED BY: DAVID JONES

INTERVIEW DATE: JANUARY 1, 1968

TRANSCRIBED BY: DAVID JONES

GENERAL SUBJECT: MEDICINE; DOCTORING; GHOST DANCE STORY

TOPICS DISCUSSED:

CHRISTMAS STORY WHICH TOOK PLACE AT HOG CREEK METHODIST CHURCH

GHOST DANCE: GHOST DANCE PRIEST, COSTUME, FATHER ISADORE
STOPPING GHOST DANCE

TEN GODS OF KIOWAS

MEDICINE MEN AND MEDICINE WOMEN: PAYMENT, ABUSE OF POWERS, DIFFERENT KIOWA MEDICINE MEN

SWEAT LODGE

STORY OF HOW DAISEY WAS PUNISHED BY OLD WOMAN'S SPIRIT FOR REFUSING MEDICINE

BACKGROUND OF INFORMANTS:

Daisey Hokeah was born near Hog Creek in Caddo County, Oklahoma
April 10, 1918 and has lived in this area all of her life.

Jack Hokeah was born in the general area of Hog Creek and has also lived in this area all of his life. He is a fairly well-known Indian artist.

Note: Charlie Palmer is present and assisted in this interview.