

had it, and my grandpa Jimmy, he had a looked like a hail, big hail, glass ball and it come out and if he make you hold it, it just smoke. One time he said, "I know you just peeping around. Come here, I'm going to show you, and" He went (Keah) and he told me to hold my hand out, and I hold my left hand out and he--"No, you're other hand. Your right handed." And he put it there and sure enought it just like ice, and it was just smoking and I was afraid of it, and when I put it back in his hand, he won't let me-- Until I rub my hand through that stuff that he doctors, and he put four different kind of sages in there, and then he put my hand there like that. Then he explained to me when he'd doctiring when a feather falls off, well two, three, well, that's how many days they got to live. I didn't know--didn't understand it but--that's how many days they got.

Jack: These medicines people it's their gift from the Creator, I don't know who, but they don't use it right. They don't use it right the way they're supposed to, and that's why something always happens to them. They really suffer, if they die--those Medicine People. But they don't use it right. See, these Medicine People, they jealous people. See like us, we medicine mens right here, us four of us, one of us good. We get jealous, then we want to witch him, do something to him. Or else when we go out maybe we shoot him down because he better then us--got better power and all that better you know. Then we get jealous and we want to get rid of him. That's the way them Medicine Men been killing each others. Been killing each others.

Dasiey: That's how they been getting rid of-- Jack: When they get face to face and then one of them--they witch him.

Daisey: What about that man that had worm medicine and made that man's
