

and everything.

(Well, that's all right.)

There's another something I'm proud of too--that Mason--well, they set up these all that stuff like that you respect.

(That's right. Well, you've been in that organization a long time, 50 years--)

Yeah, I went in the 18th, the 19th--

(Any Indian in that?)

Yah, there's a few, you betcha and their pretty good workers too. I had another one there, fellow give me the other day, I've kept it a length of time. He's the--on the council there. Showed you and I tried to help anybody and do right and anyway, to help people along. Cause you don't know--I hurt my foot, and I hadn't drove my car in 30 weeks today. Drove too long and I never had to walk to work. People come get me and grandchildren or any of them. Things--and that makes a man feel good. And I everything--I wished I was fine and didn't have any troubles. That's my Mason card. If you can use that up, and go to the lodge and used to go everythine. Now I don't go--maybe this is that other card.

Sure lot of --

(Ther Sheriff and Beach Officers Association of Oklahoma --)

Yeah. You know that--you if a man can live that way, and it makes him feel good. You know, he's got friends don't you?

LAW ENFORCEMENT:

(That's right, were you ever in law enforcement for a living?)

No, I never did have a chance to be it. Anadarko and everything. kBut there's something about law I never liked. What I mean I don't like their harass people or anything.
