

and said to me after, "Now you have lunch ready and we'll come after you. She said "We eat lunch - supper over there and we come over on the bus." So, I told my little boy there, "You come on down there, you know." So, everything started and I went around there to Mrs. Henderson, our English leader. She told me, she said, "now you watch." She said, "They don't ever use God. Said, "Jesus was sent down here to take his Father's place. God sent Him down here to be with us." And she said, "They don't ever use Jesus' name for God." And I watch him and he was talking that night and he never said Jesus' name one time ((sentence not clear)) static on tape Mr. Byrd: God says it's your fault - not my fault. So, in case of where people that -- well, there's a lot of them says you don't have to have no Bible knowledge, just your faith. But that's not what the Bible says. How can a man keep God's law if he don't know the Bible? And with his own thinking which is right, they might - well, just like these ((words not clear)) They think it's right and God's word is against it. So, if anybody don't have the knowledge of the Bible then they could be doing something which is not good to God and he is doing that. And then when you go to tell him, they dispute you. And you know it's written in the Bible, they thankful for they just then said that It's been told from time to time in old generations which is true. But then it's not taken from the Bible. I'm trying to tell you - now ((name not clear)) and he's one that baptized me, and I asked him about this Indian doctoring and he said it was alright. And then when I learned in the Bible, to read, I read it to him just like I showed you that, and he said, "Well, I guess I just go to Hell." He didn't want to quit it. Wasn't going to quit doing that. So, as I mentioned while ago, this Zeke Lamb here, he's a Baptist preacher. He's doing it. I know he does. He was fixen tobacco for this old lady here one time and I told him I wouldn't have anything to do with it. And then she told me, too, that she believed in what I said. So, I
