

(Do they have singing over there?)

Yeah, they have singing over there.

(At New Jordan.)

Yeah.

(Who are some of the good singers now around here?)

Oh they come from everywhere, mostly the churches they come from.

(What was that group that was invited to go everywhere?)

I don't know, I guess they was talking about us. See they took a group, I say a group there was about 5 or 6 of them, you know, singing and quartet. ---

(Well, I've sure enjoyed hearing them at ah--)

Down there close to Stilwell they say there's good singers down there.

(Do they use the Cherokee hymnal?)

Yes. --Yeah me and one of the secretary was down there. She was one.

(What is her name?)

Connie Healdton. She works in Tulsa somewhere. She goes over there through the week and comes back on the week-ends. About Saturday, and attend our Church you know. I don't know about that. I know it was (not clear) I don't know what he--, see Glenn and his wife, she can write and read. --and over here at Grand Valley Hospital and marry --it was suppose to start at 2 o'clock but it's past two. It's 2:25, I guess she ready to go over there I guess.
