

idiot, and I don't care anything about idiots being in here." You know that's the way I do. I thought--well I had some customers that walked out on me. They said they'd run me out of business. I said, "Go right ahead." But their business closed up but mine didn't. I sold my business and I didn't have another friend a different race, nationality, and you know our family are not all of one church. Mr. Kelley and I are members of Church of Christ. But my son married a Mormon girl and youngest son, the one married the Indian girl, I think her family are Methodists, you know. I believe that's the church they went to. But as I said, their life is theirs and yours is yours and how you live it, it's none of my business. I'm not keeping you. If I had to support you that might be a little different story. I just like people. But I am a land lover. Now I want to show you something of what you can do with nothing, and don't ever let people--they tell you here in Oklahoma and they tell you everywhere that it takes $25,000 to set up farming where you can have $8,000 income, maybe so. But not a livin'. You could live, I'll show you.
