

one to take them.

(So that way it has helped them to become adjusted?)

Yes.

SIDE A PART II

ATTENDING CHURCH SERVICES AT A LITTLE MISSION CHURCH IN GEARY - SONGS AND PRAYERS

(We're going to go to a little mission church in Geary. Mrs. McElhaney's husband has this little church and has a little Sunday afternoon, Sunday school.)

--March the third, call to worship. Blessed be God because He has not rejected our prayer. (Not clear) love from us, God has blessed us.

Let all ends of the earth hear Him. Shall we pray. Our Father, we do thank Thee for God, who is eternal, who is wonderful to each one of us, in this hour as we study Thy word. It might be a source of joy and peace to each one of us. We pray oh Father, for the leading of our spirits on our service. We pray throughout the rest of this day, in everything we do, oh Lord, that we might do it unto Thee. Bless us oh Father, help us that we might live for Thee more closely than we ever have before. Bless our people, watch over them and keep them safe. We ask this in Jesus name, for his sake we pray. Amen.

Our suggested hymn is Oh Zion Haste. That's a mission song and I don't know whether it's in our hymnal--Oh Zion Haste, 386, a Mission hymn.

---what's the number?

386. Sings entire song in Kiowa language.

--Indian hymn I'd like to sing before we go.

Maybe somebody else might show up after awhile. Go ahead. We can sing again. Maybe you can lead--our worship. We usually sing an Indian hymn anyway, so this isn't anything unusual. Does it make any difference
