

QUANAH PARKER:

(Did your father know Quanah Parker?)

Yeah. They all met somewhere way up in here for peyote meetings. They go with them. Go where they having big council, well, they all over there.

That's where lot of people know him.

(Where would they have a council?)

Well, at Anadarko. Used to be old office there. We always seen him there, but we don't pay no attention to him much. I just seen him and know that that's Quanah Parker.

(Did your father ever attend peyote meetings down at Quanah Parker's place?)

No, I don't think so. Not that I know of. But we went down to his house, way down there at Chache, I think--northwest of Cache--he's got home there--big house. And we--two-three wagons went down there. We camped down there. Course my mother don't want me to go, but anyhow I sneak around there and they're all eating.

(Was that after a peyote meeting?)

No. It wasn't peyote. We just going through there to go Fort Sill or went to visit him--I don't know what it is. I was small. But I know that we was down at his house. And on top of his house was great big star. Star on there, painted white.
