

have to find in that Office, but I don't know what they done with it.

(Were you a pretty young when you got married?)

I wish I know by birthday, but they can't find it for me.

(Can you tell me any more about how you met your husband?)

I don't know. See, we just got married.

(Well, did you meet him in Anadarko?)

Yeah.

(How did he come to be down?)

Oh they dance--Tonkawa, you know. Long time. They come to dance with Comanche in Anadarko, and Kiowa. Long time.

(What kind of dances did they do?)

Round dance, I guess. Long time ago. All they die, Tonkawa, no more Tonkawa. Do you know May Bezbizbe? Cleo's mother. You don't know Cleo?

(No, what was--May what?)

May Spotted-Crow. You know her?

(I heard of her. I don't know her.)

She died, that woman, and his sister died, too, and he married Tonkawa, you know. That woman. And all they die. Just his children left. No more. All gone.

(You mean May married a Tonkawa?)

No, she married Cheyenne. May, you know--Cleo's mother. You know, you never did see Cleo? They live in town.

(What's his last name?).

Cleo?

(Uh huh.)

Cleo Spotted Crow.

(Now, I know a Ralph Spotted Crow.)

Yeah, that's his brother--half-brother. They got different father. That Ralph, his father is Cheyenne and that Cleo's, father is Arapaho.

(Well, what was May's last name before she married Spotted Crow?)

His name--white name or Indian?)

(Her Indian name? You called her something while ago.)

May be¹zize (transcription doubtful)

(Yeah, that's what I want you to say again? May what?)