

(What the Grandmother?)

PEYOTE

No, we don't do that. We just go in there and tell them we want something done.

Tell your Father, "Help me pray." Just like we're talking to that medicine this peyote. We call that "flower"--"beautiful flower." See, it's in the flower family. But white people or somebody call it "mescal" and "peyote," and "herb" and lot of different--

(Yeah, they got lot of names for it.)

But we call it "flower"--"beautiful flower."

(I like your name best.)

That's in that flower family.

(It does have a pretty flower.)

Yeah, when it's blooming, you look at it and it's just-- And we talk to it.

We smoke and then talk to it. Tell your Father, the Creator--you're closer to God than I am. There ain't nothing wrong with you, but me, I do a lot of things on this earth, you know. Just sin pretty near every day--"

DZAIDETALI BUNDLES: (TWIN BOYS)

-(Well, this White Fox, you said he had one of these--that he was the keeper of one of these?)

Keeper, yeah. He was a leader, like me. And when he died, I'm taking that place. Now I'm the leader of these Ten Grandmothers.

(Did he just have one, or--)

Yeah, he's got one, but he's the leader of them.

(I'd like to talk to you about that a little more when we have time too.)

Yeah, it's got a lot of things. But nobody know where they come from. They just--all they know is that they way back there. Twins, they say. dzaidetal-- "twins." One boy, but turn into twins.

(Do you know that story?)
