

along by their side, be a challenge unto us that we might strive for the same qualities, for the same goodness, and the same purpose of mind, that we may be able to build even a greater nation and greater country. And establish it upon the works of thy mighty hands. Father, we pray thy blessing upon all that are gathered here today. Upon these that have participated in this program and in the years to come, we pray that thy blessing will rest upon the services that memorialize these great men of old. Take us all to our homes and to our places of worship today, and we'll praise you. Amen.

(This is the end of the tape of the dedication of Jesse Chisholm and Chief Left Hand in Geary, Oklahoma on March 3, 1968.)
