

we know, without no trouble, all the cavalry horses surround us all in that reservation, in that camp. So they told us - they took us out there to Arizona. So we - they took us up there to Arizona without no trouble. They take our scouts with us. And we went, they took us to about 30 miles east of San Carlos. We was there for about 8 months. So these chiefs, Apache chiefs, they didn't like it. They said, "We got a home up there, our own reservation, why they took us down here, they never said nothing to us. And we stay right here." So they said, "Well, let's go back to our reservation." They said, "Nobody - well, we never done no harm to nobody there ain't no use to stay away from our reservation." So they started out without agents know. Before they started off back, why Geronimo, them two men in jail they turn him loose from there. They give him blankets, give him rations. Then they went on. Then they went back, these Warm Spring Apache they went back to Warm Spring Apache. They went back. On the way soldier from San Carlos, they find out, they come after us. They chasing us from that mountain. They kill a few of them, but the rest of them moved back to the Warm Springs Reservation, to agency. When we got over there, why we are the same way. They give us ration. Everythings alright when we got back over there. We - we - no trouble at all because our agents still there yet. So we are - stayed down there, at the first place was 1874, that they take us away from there. This time in 1875 they done the same way, they took us. They surround us with their horses, cavalry horses. And then there's one fellow that's name Bigdoya, he's a chief. Chief Bigdoya, he's the man, he don't want to leave this reservation. He said, "You white man never give me this land. When you was out over the sea somewhere, I got this land already to stay on it. Now they trying to take me away. Without a - no trouble. Never done anything wrong. Never fight anybody. Never kill anybody. Why they trying to take us away from here. I don't like to do that. I don't want to get away
