

my head." Well, "You see that sun up there? Before the sun goes down you two be killed." Alright. That's one of his men, his men Jachio, he's big war man. He got up and take his gun and take bullets out of his six shooter and says, "Geronimo, if your going to kill these two men, he said, I be with these two men. I be killed too, with them." Then there's another man over here. His name Genosha. He said, "I be one of them too. I be killed with them too, Geronimo, with these two scouts." Alright. Then Geronimo, he called down, he told his men, "If you want to say something, well, alright. I give you chance to talk." Give him a smoke. Then he told them that. He asked them first, "Where you from? Where you fellows from?" "About 50 miles from here we got a soldiers up there. Cavalry soldiers waiting for us. We come down here." "Who sent you out here?" "General Miles, the officer's name is General Miles." Alright. "He sent us down here to find you and he try to save your life for you, that's why he come down here. And we been out here with you when we was boy's. We raised out here with you. And been fighting for you. Then we don't - you know it pretty well, we been fighting for you. Then you are - have to try to tell them to kill us, but you give it up now. And we're want to hear what you going to say about it." Well, Geronimo said, "You go back to that army, go back and then go back and back to General Miles and tell General Miles, I be there in two weeks to see him." Alright. Then these two men went back to that, there was soldier, they went back to General Miles. They told General Miles that Geronimo he's going to see him in 2 weeks from now, he be here. Alright. In 2 weeks time he came, to General Miles. And he took everything that he took and put it down. That's all he use, no gun, no knife, just put it away. "I'm not going to bother anybody again. Alright. Then if you want to do anything to me, if you want to kill me, well that's alright. If you want to hang me that's alright. I just give my self to you. Whatever you want to do, do it." General Miles said,
