

All these schools it goes to them--(unin) lot of money in those schools.

ROYALTIES:

(Is that Choctaw money that has to pay for those?)

Yeah. They come out of that. Sure.

No, they won't. Course they oughta have quite a sum, you know, they ain't made no per capita payments in years and years, you know. They ought to have quite a lot of money.

(Do they Choctaws have any royalties that you know of? They get any money from?)

Well, some of 'em does. I was just tellin' Bob Phillips the other night. He's the I think some of his folks gets royalties. His wife does. Course him and his wifes separated. I know she bought a car here a while back and they told me that's what she bought that car with. Royalties. (unin.)

(Did you tell me your wifes maiden name was Jackson?)

You mean my wife?

(Y our mother--your mother's?)

Oh, I think--I think that's right. I couldn't tell ya what it was. It's been too long. I've forgotten but I believe Jackson.

(So if you're three-quarters.)

Um-hum.

(What was--how much was your wife?)

My wife. My wife's white.

(Your wife was lwhite. You're--)

She come from Kentucky.

(From Kentucky. White woman.)

Her name was Lela.--

(Lela . Pop has a cousin named Lela. There wee--there were a lot of--that's a pretty common name.)

Uh-huh. She lives around Boswell. Lots of 'em has that name. They was born right close to Mammoth Cave.

(Did you ever see wither of your grandpas or grandmas?)

Never never. They was all dead. Maybe before I was born. I don't know. I--
