

go to hide, and thunder and hail about to beat her up. She finally hid in an old buffalo carcass. And the buffalo carcass appeared to her in a dream--vision--and told her everything. How to--bestow the Buffalo gifts and this Buffalo Medicine man--carried her ceremony, for finding out they use in the ceremony, and doctor people and make 'em well when they're shot and bled. Lot of 'em medicine man--I saw them doctor my cousin. About seven of 'em. Seven of 'em doctored. And they almost made him get up. He go through the motions like a buffalo--like he's pawing the ground. He's --dead--he had a wound right here. He'd paw the ground, and they're singing, and using buffalo tail medicine, and trying to force him up. It's a interesting story. We'll get all the details.

(END)