

(Mr. McIntosh, how old are you sir?)

I'm in my 88.

(Your in your 88th year?)

Yes sir.

(When were you born, and where were you born?)

Well, I was born, well from here let's see--one, two, three, four miles southwest of here.

(Four miles southwest of here?)

Yes sir, eight miles southwest of Wewoka.

(Who were your parents, Mr. McIntosh?)

My mother was named Venus Davis and my dad was named Sandy McIntosh; he was a Creek freedman.

(Creek freedman?)

Yes sir.

(Mr. McIntosh, was your father, would he have been a slave of the Creeks?)

Why--his parents was.

(His parents were slaves?)

Yes sir, yes sir.

(Now, you--you also--you had an allotment?)

Yes sir.

(In the Creek Na--Seminole Nation?)

Yes sir.

(Yes sir, you then are a Seminole freedman?)

Yes sir.

(As you grew up, Mr. McIntosh, do you remember--did you go to school in Seminole county?)

Yes sir, I went to school a little while, over at so-called Nobletown, that's north of Wewoka.

(Yes sir, north and west.)

Yes sir.
