

( Josiah Homer? Never did hear of Mary Homer?)

Mary Homer? No, I guess not.

( Arron Homer?)

Arron Homer. Yeah. He was a preacher, wasn't he? Arron Homer?

( Did Arron ever preach?)

Voice in background-----Not that I know of.

( Pop went to school with Arron.)

Oh. Where was that?

( Was it Atoka?)

Voice----- I never did go to school with him.

( You didn't? Now Nancy and Emma were talking about Mary Homer at Atoka. But you say you never did go to that Baptist school? Where were you born?)

In Caney.

( Caney?)

Uh-huh. West of Caney. Caney Oklahoma

( Were your mother and daddy both on the Roll?)

No. My father. I've still got roll numbers in that box some place.

( What was your mother's name before she was married?)

Her name was Adline Collins. And she married Jones Erasier, first time. Her name was Adline Frasier.

( Did you go to Choctaw church around here?)

Yes. If I had a way to go, I go. Hard to get a way to go to church. No way look like. When this Abbot Gill - he used to live in Bently - now he is in Oklahoma City.

( Is he? Well, they told me about him in Atoka. And I was going to go out there at Bently to see him. I didn't know he was in Oklahoma City.)

Well, he is in Oklahoma City now, but next week, he said he be at Bently all week.

( Uh-huh. I was supposed to see him. I wanted to see him and then Lewis Armstrong. Do you know Lewis Armstrong?)
