

(Who preached?)

Joe Reed.

(Joe Reed? Is he Choctaw?)

Half I guess. Come from Wilburton.

(Wilburton? Preach in Choctaw?)

Yeah. Choctaw and English.

(Anybody there who could sing in Choctaw?)

Oh, yes. Rest of 'em sing in Choctaw and whites. They have a good time up there. (Laughter)

(Do they bring their dinner?)

Oh, yes. Bring their dinner. Have it on a long table there. Spread it on there. Lots of it. Got a big yard. But they ain't nothing. Cars. They can't go no car parts. All full that yard.

(With cars?)

Uh-huh.

(Who took you?)

My nephew.

Abbot Gill

(Oh, he was down there?)

Yeah. He come Saturday. He stay all night with me. And he took me to big singing.

(Well, that's good. That was a nice trip for you. Did you see lots of old timers?)

Yeah. From Broken Bow and from Battiest, Oklahoma, all up in there.

(Did some of 'em camp over night?)

No. Huh-uh. Just all day. All day to 4 o'clock.

(Just all day Sunday?)
