

about the different dances, like this we talked. And we talked and we mentioned about like these animals that we imitate you know, (Pawnee words), he name them.

Mrs. Osborne: Now the other one, Ramona, is a beaver.

Yeah, beaver that's the one Henry Shooter, he use to have the beaver, that is the whole beaver. And I know of a few of the old folks you know. And I mentioned about Walking Son, same way like me. Old Man Walking Son--

Mrs. Osborne: Did he say anything about him? A doctors name. He imitated a horse too.

Yeah, same. And that Old Man White Horse that's when he was well, old man was sick. He doctor that White Horse. And Old Man White Elk, another one. Another one--Henry Shooter and George Shooter same way. Be like him, George Shooter is Henry Shotter's father. I use to be in there and see old man Auchidah, that was him with his son in there. (Sentence in Pawnee)

(This Auchidah, what does that mean?)

That's--I don't know. I forgot that man's name.

Mrs. Osborne: That's Henry Shooters father.

Yeah, his name was Auchidah, that's his name. And another one out there, Fast Walker, fastest walker anywhere. Well that night he took off, no shoes on, no shoes, just blanket on, go around different places, his name was Frost Eagle, old man. They thought he could do it. I remember I stay over there they haul water, didn't have water pump or spring. His name was (Pawnee name) and I use to be in there with him too. Old man. Yeah, old man, Ramona and his boys use to be in there. Old Man Fancy Eagle, you didn't know him did you?

Mrs. Osborne: Just barely.

Old Man Fancy Eagle, they use to be in there Lewis' grandpa you know. Old Man Fancy Eagle. Yeah. There's another one from Oak Grove over here, his name was Nashuska Tony.

Mrs. Osborne: Oh, yeah, was he a doctor too?
